Down Payment Resource Announces Veronica Khandelwal as HFA Relationship Manager

Atlanta, GA, August 20, 2020 – Atlanta-based Down Payment Resource (DPR), the nation's leader in providing homebuyers and professionals with information on down payment assistance programs, announced the recent addition of Veronica Khandelwal as an HFA Relationship Manager. Khandelwal is responsible for furthering DPR's relationships with Housing Finance Agencies (HFAs) and other affordable housing program providers.

Khandelwal has more than 20 years experience in the mortgage industry, including closing and funding for both lending and title companies, as well as an extensive background in regulatory compliance and product development. Most recently, Khandelwal worked in Mortgage Product Development for Fifth Third Bank where she was the subject matter expert for all affordable lending programs.

"I'm pleased to welcome Veronica Khandelwal to our talented team. Her passion and expertise in affordable homeownership and mortgage lending brings tremendous value to the HFAs and program administrators we serve, as well as our business partners," said Rob Chrane, CEO of Down Payment Resource.

Over the past 11 years, Down Payment Resource has become the industry authority for the most current information about affordable lending programs. The company's solutions automate the process of matching buyers and properties to available programs, improve lender participation and increase consumer awareness.
